DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. Claims 7-9, 11, 13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anderson et al. US Patent No. 6,436,127 in view of Doiron et al., described above.

Anderson et al. disclose a method for treating psoriasis by irradiating the affected skin with a UV light. In the Background of their invention, they further teach that the use of photoactive/photosensitizing agents during phototherapy treatment of psoriasis is well known in the art (see col. 1, lines 50-61). However, Anderson et al. fail to disclose the types of the energy sources used in the prior art or the use of plurality of wavelengths to provide the treatment as recited in amended claim 7. Doiron et al. disclose an alternative phototherapeutic device useful for treating skin conditions such as psoriasis and hyperbilirubinemia, the device comprising a plurality of light emitting diodes (LEDs). It is known in the art that an LED provides a broadband light composed of different wavelengths centered at the peak output wavelength of the LED. Hence, Doiron et al. exposes to the skin an EM radiation/light of more than one wavelength.

Therefore, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify the well known prior art described by Anderson et al. in view of Doiron et al. and use LED(s) as an equivalent alternative light source(s) to provide the treatment energy.

2. Claim 10 is again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Anderson et al. in view of Doiron et al as applied to claims 7-9 above, and further in view of Tankovich et al. US Patent No. 5,817,089.

Neither Anderson et al. nor Doiron et al. teach the use of ultrasound to aide treatment of psoriasis. However, the applicant's written description teaches that the ultrasound is used to enhance of particles/agents into the tissue. Applicant's written description further recognizes that the use of ultrasonic energy to enhance penetration of particles into a tissue site is known in the art. In particular, page 15, lines 5-8 of the applicant's specification clearly teaches that Tankovich et al. ('089) use ultrasonic energy to enhance penetration of hair dye into the hair shaft.

Therefore, at the time of the applicant's invention, it would have been obvious to one skilled in the art to modify the well known method for treating psoriasis described by Anderson et al. in view of Doiron et al. and in further view of Tankovich et al. to use ultrasonic energy in order to enhance penetration of the photoactive agent into the tissue.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claim 12 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
